

From: Derrick Goodwin
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/26/01 8:50am
Subject: I can't believe it...

If you wish to discourage a behavior you should punish it. This does not appear clear to the DOJ. Allowing Microsoft to "donate" computers to less fortunate schools punishes the schools more than Microsoft. They have always wanted to increase their market share in schools. Make Microsoft donate "money" to the schools and let the schools decide what they want to do with it.

Derrick Goodwin